

ADULTS LEARNING MENTAL HEALTH: SOUND SIMPLE?

Let's Talk About Issues of Empowerment, Differences, Social Exclusion, Professional Power, and Knowledge Exchange

Dr. Liz Townsend will spark discussion on the governance of adult learning about mental health within and beyond health systems. Liz is interested in interdisciplinary adult education, health, and sociological perspectives on mental health, integrating her background in adult education and occupational therapy. She is on leave in PEI from her position as Director of Dalhousie's School of Occupational Therapy.

Dr. Liz Townsend

School of Occupational Therapy/School of Nursing
Department of Community Health & Epidemiology
Dalhousie University

Friday, November 20, 2009

1:30—3:30

Memorial Hall 305

Presented by the UPEI Centre for Education Research

