

Eating Between The Lines

You are Invited to the Official Launch of the Eating Between the Lines (EBTL) Website:

www.ebtl.org

EBTL has been developed by a team of early childhood researchers and an advisory team at the University of Prince Edward Island. It is intended as a resource for early childhood educators (ECEs) to foster an interest in nutrition issues and food awareness in a fun and informative environment while emphasising early literacy.

COME see an overview of the site.

DISCUSS its uses for ECEs & parents.

SHARE feedback on the site.
