Notes:

- If nobody shows up within the first 10 minutes of an office hour, I am likely going to go to Cass 312 and make myself a coffee. Feel free to track me down there.
- If an office hour must be cancelled, a note will appear on my door. I will normally try to arrange an alternate office hour.
- The “unclaimed” time slots are not guaranteed open time to come for help — I may be working on a faculty member’s computer, fixing a lab problem, or doing other tasks. You can check, but be prepared to hear “Sorry, I’m busy right now.”
- Please respect my lunch period. I am unavailable during that time.
- Check the Graphical Ever-Amazing ChrisFinder™ (which is on my office door) to find out what I’m doing at any given time.
