Job Posting Information

Position Type:	Full Time
Position Term:	Temporary/Contract (one year from start time, with the possibility of extending)
Position Title:	ESL Teacher
Salary:	starting $3000 per month
Location:	China
Position Start Date:	As soon as possible
Minimum Education:	Undergraduate Degree (All Areas of Study)
Job Description:	We work closely with ESL training partners worldwide to teach English to middle and high school students. We are currently hiring ESL teachers for our Chinese training partners to find ESL teachers to teach English in China. Our training partners are middle to large sized ESL training centers, private language schools, public schools, International Baccalaureate schools, or private international schools. They offer excellent opportunities for those interested in teaching English in China. The English language market is growing fast in China, and many new positions are becoming available. Teachers entering into these Chinese teaching jobs can expect a competitive salary, which includes a variety of benefits, depending on the type of school. But it's required by the government to pay at least a return air ticket. Most schools also pay for an accommodation either on the school campus or off campus. The starting monthly salary is $3000 (CAD) It should be kept in mind that the cost of living is much lower than Canada, so teachers should expect to save a significant portion of their salary while travelling the fabulous country. We have openings in different cities in China and our school partners are looking to fill them soon.
Skills and Qualifications:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Fluent in English, and able to teach accent classes, as well as grammar and vocabulary.</li><li>• Undergraduate Bachelor's Degree in any field</li></ul>
