What should I expect if I get selected?

- Test out your class-learned skills on a real job and earn €6000 (Wow)
- Work remotely with the best in the business
- Develop a creative business project
- Get a chance to represent Canada globally at the end of the program
- Have an opportunity to get a full-time job offer from Adecco Canada

Do I qualify?

Anyone who has the passion and determination can apply, but you might have a better chance if you are confident about the below skills:

- Complex analysis and problem-solving skills
- Great self-knowledge and Emotional Intelligence
- Exceptional written and verbal communication skills (Also speaking French is a huge asset)
- Leadership and ownership skills
- Ability to be a team player
- Community involvement and sports participation

What will my day look like during this challenge?

Our CEO for One Month program is jam-packed with unique experiences, so you will be never bored.

The responsibilities of the CEO for One Month include:

- Participating in all executive meetings with the President
- Create your unique business solution to impact bottom line
- Working on national projects as a member of the Adecco team
- Promoting Adecco's programs to support young people

This internship represents the experience of a lifetime and a unique opportunity to see what it's like to be CEO of a Fortune 500 company. Show us that you have the determination, insight and willingness to take up the biggest challenge of your career.
