Job Description :

Vantage Canada is looking for our next sales superstar. At Vantage Canada, we offer world class training, and an experience that is unique and rewarding.

Our staff has the opportunity to live in some of Canada's most beautiful cities in our staff accommodations (Vancouver, Kelowna, Montreal, Calgary, Edmonton or Toronto). Our hands-on training is done daily, so you'll finish your summer not only with unmatched income, but a new skill set for your future career. We provide fully furnished apartments/housing (rent free) and give students the opportunity to earn a higher than average summer income (our 2021 average earnings per student was $17,500 over the course of the four month summer). Students work in a sales role marketing residential services for Terminix International. You will have the opportunity to learn how to perfect a sales presentation, drastically improve your communication skills and the trajectory of your career with some of the most respected names in the industry, and apply these skills in live customer presentations daily.

As such we look for highly accomplished, extremely motivated individuals who are not looking to just pass the summer by, but rather want to maximize their earnings, travel within Canada, and gain valuable and transferable business skills.

Vantage Canada hires only the most ambitious students. This connects you with like-minded peers and creates a new valuable network of friends and business colleagues. This job also allows you to travel, should you so choose, as many of our sales reps work in a different province each month. Those who prefer to stick closer to home, can also do so.

Vantage Canada sales reps come back to school in the fall with a new set of business and interpersonal skills that are simply not taught in university. In this job, you will be performing thousands of sales presentations to a very diverse group of people across major cities in Canada. Our reps come back with a new level of confidence and ability to communicate with people of all ages and backgrounds.

If you are truly interested in setting yourself apart, living and exploring our beautiful country, all while gaining financial freedom, then this could be the perfect opportunity for you.
