

REGISTERED NURSE – GENERAL DUTY (MED/SURG)

Status: RELIEF PART TIME (0.75 FTE)

Hourly Wage: $35.53

Position Summary

Are you looking to be part of a strong team in a fast paced, leading edge facility? If you answered yes, then we have an exciting relief part time (0.75 FTE) opportunity for you at the South Okanagan General Hospital (SOGH) in the friendly town of Oliver. This relief is until June 13, 2022 or return of the incumbent.

SOGH is an active, rural hospital serving the communities of Oliver, Osoyoos, and surrounding areas that sees an average of 16,000 emergency visits per year. There are 7 Emergency beds and 18 acute care beds which regularly operate at 100% capacity. The shifts are days and nights, 07:15 - 19:15 or 19:15 - 07:15 hours.

This site was selected to be a pilot site for the implementation of the electronic Meditech Charting System, Advanced Clinicals. We now have been a paperless ward for a few years, and one of the few who have been able to achieve it in Canada and North America. Nursing and multidisciplinary notes, medication administration, and physicians' orders are done electronically. Today, we are seen as a leader in this technology.

At SOGH, there is a strong commitment toward staff development and encouraging growth. Teamwork is an essential component of our daily activities. Oliver is located in a picturesque valley of orchards, vineyards, lakes and waterways, in the heart of south central British Columbia. Home to more than 10 local wineries, it is known as "The Capital of Wine Country". With its mild climate, relaxed lifestyle and scenic surroundings, Oliver is a wonderful residential location to call home. Recreational opportunities in the area include hiking, cycling, canoeing, fishing and skiing.

Come live, work and play where others only vacation. It's more than a career, it's a lifestyle. Apply today to grow, develop and become a part of this amazing team!
