Are you ready for a challenge in the ever-evolving risk and regulatory consulting area? Do you thrive in a high-impact, high-profile highly rewarding environment working for pre-eminent Canadian and Global organizations? Do you want to solve emerging challenges and develop strategies and insights to aid institutions in innovating and transforming their risk/regulatory operations? Join us. Work with leaders in the field of risk and regulatory consulting globally to combine innovative thinking with program and technological execution. Work for a world-class organization that provides an exceptional career experience with an inclusive and collaborative team.

What will your typical day look like?

There are no typical days! Working in Risk and Regulatory Consulting offers a dynamic, fast-paced environment, which presents you with the opportunity to continually grow and learn from people with different backgrounds and working styles. Your days will be filled with impact – professionally, socially, and personally. Professionally, you will synthesize and communicate complex analyses to senior executives for them to take effective action at their global organizations. Socially, you will work through exciting challenges with peers and colleagues, solving complicated and substantial problems. Personally, you will share your successes and learnings with colleagues that will expand your network and become colleagues for life.

As a consultant, you will focus on delivering strategy, advisory and data/technology solutions to Global and Canada's pre-eminent organizations, around Regulatory Compliance, Financial Risk (Credit, Market, Liquidity) Management, Non-Financial Risk Management and Financial Crime. You will develop specialized skills and extensive experience to help clients effectively and proactively manage risks & regulations. You will collaborate within multi-service teams to help our clients envision new ways to address and automate regulatory and risk operations within their organization. You will also challenge yourself to learn and apply new and emerging technologies to solve our clients' most complex challenges.

About the team

We are the largest Risk & Regulatory consulting practice in Canada. Our Risk and Regulatory team provide end-to-end consultative services to executives and boards, designed to enhance the effective management of Regulatory, Financial & Non-Financial (inclusive of Financial Crime) Risks. We also are continually helping clients optimize their risk/regulatory management capabilities through innovative data & technology solutions and new operating models.
