

Employment Opportunity

Position: Treaty Education Lead - Full-time, Permanent

Location: Charlottetown, PEI

Includes: Vacation, Health Benefits and Pension

Closing Date: May 24, 2023

Salary: $60,000-$70,000

Position Summary

L'nuey is currently seeking applicants for the position of Treaty Education Lead. L'nuey and the Province of PEI officials are working together to develop content and programming for the public education system, the provincial public service, and the public. The Treaty Education Lead is responsible for guiding and managing this collaborative work, based on the Treaty Education MOU between the Mi'kmaq and the Province of PEI. This work will form the foundation of future partnerships and Treaty education work across Epekwitk (PEI).

Duties and Responsibilities:

- Coordinate and manage work as outlined in the Treaty Education MOU
- Cooperatively develop foundational Treaty Education content for the Treaty Education programs and services, based on agreed-upon historical facts, research, and evidence
- Work to advanced understanding of all Islanders with respect to original treaty rights of the Mi'kmaq and the Peace and Friendship Treaties, both in their historical context, and in their modern context
- Support provincial school authorities, to increase knowledge, develop resources and curriculum material, and increase awareness for all PEI students and teachers at all grades
- Increase Treaty education awareness and understanding in the provincial public service, and for all islanders through public education
- Provide strategic advice, guidance, and monitor the progress of the Treaty Education MOU and work plan
- Assist with coordination and implementation of the education program
- Participate in related committees to guide the implementation process
- Engage with Mi'kmaq leadership and communities on content development
- Provide regular reports as needed
- Perform other related duties as required

Qualifications

- Bachelor's degree or equivalent combination of related education and experience
- Related work experience in curriculum development, education field and/or Treaty education
- Experience in project management
- Knowledge of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission Calls to Action
- Prior experience providing administrative support, in particular the coordination of meetings
- Prior experience collecting and compiling data/information is an asset

- Strong interpersonal, written communication and organization skills
- Proficient in the use of Microsoft Office programs
- Excellent attention to detail
- Treaty Education experience or understanding is a strong asset
- Knowledge of Mi'kmaq Traditions, history, and culture
- Written and verbal communications skills that allow you to inform and advise others clearly
- Prior experience working with Mi'kmaq and/or Indigenous communities or organizations

Conditions of Employment:

- Must hold and maintain a valid PEI driver's license (in-province travel required).
- Potential for occasional work on evenings or weekends.

Application:

L'nuey hires based on merit and is committed to employment equity. We encourage all qualified persons to apply; however, qualified Aboriginal applicants will be given priority in accordance with the Aboriginal Employment Preference policy of the Canadian Human Rights Commission.

We thank all applicants for their interest, however, only those selected for interviews will be contacted. Please forward your resumé and cover letter to apply@lnuey.ca by 3PM on May 24, 2023

Position is subject to annual funding approval.